FEES FOR CLASSIFIED FORMAT, SERVICES & VEHICLES LISTINGS
Pricing includes GST*	Insertion fees	Final value fees	Reserve price feature fee (Auction listings only)	Scheduled listing fees	*GST on eBay fees If you're a business customer and are registered for GST, you can get a GST exemption if you register your Australian Business Number (ABN) with eBay here: Register for GST exemption on eBay fees		See our category pricing list (link below) for: - Categories excluded from monthly free listings - Collectables categories for free or discounted auctions - Media categories for $0.05 insertion fee - Categories with specific fees (Classified Ad format-only categories, Services and Vehicles categories) - Categories excluded from automatic relisting - Categories that incur additional feature fees - Categories included in final value fee tiers: Tier 1 categories: Transactions where the buyer paid $250 or more in the Home Appliances category and in Technology devices categories Tier 3 categories: Transactions in Technology accessories, Fashion, Sporting Goods, Collectables and Media categories Vehicle Parts & Accessories: All categories under Vehicle Parts & Accessories Note: Tier 2 includes all transactions excluding Tier 1, Tier 3, Vehicle Parts & Accessories and Services If you list an item in two categories: - You'll pay an insertion fee for the second category. Any feature fees will be charged twice (once for each category). - If the categories have different final value fees, the higher final value fee will apply when your item sells.					Additional final value fees We may apply an additional final value fee in the following circumstances: - If your account is evaluated as not meeting our minimum performance standards (i.e. 'Below Standard') in the evaluation on the 20th of a month, you'll be charged an additional 4% (excl. GST) or 4.4% (incl. GST) on the total amount paid by the buyer for sales in all categories during the following calendar month. - If your rate of 'Item not as described' returns is evaluated in your service metrics as Very High in one or more categories in the evaluation on the 20th of a month, you'll be charged an additional 4% (excl. GST) or 4.4% (incl. GST) on the total amount paid by the buyer for sales in those categories during the following calendar month. Listings will only attract one additional final value fee. The additional fee is calculated on the total amount of the sale and will apply on top of the standard maximum charge per sold item.			Other terms and conditions: - Fee amounts are based on the terms in effect when a listing goes live and when it renews. - All fees are listed in Australian dollars and apply to listings and subscriptions on eBay.com.au. - Store subscriptions are for a minimum 30-day period. - Auction-style listings may be automatically relisted up to eight times if they don't sell. Listing and feature fees are only charged for the original listing for non-business sellers. Automatic relisting is available in most categories, but there are some exclusions - Fixed price listings are "Good 'Til Cancelled" – they renew automatically once per month unless all of the items sell, you end the listing, or the listing violates an eBay policy. If you create the listing using the quick listing tool, listing and feature fees are only charged once. If you create the listing using the advanced listing form, listing and feature fees are charged for the original listing and once per month. - When charging an insertion fee for multi-quantity fixed price listings, we calculate the total start price as item price x quantity. - In the event your seller account is suspended for any reason, any amounts due on your seller account will immediately become due and payable. eBay reserves the right to immediately charge any amounts you have not previously disputed to the billing method that you are using.
